DEPARTURES YESTERDAY.
Jacob Strada, to New York, by Lancaster, Connell.
John W. Smith, to New York, by Baltic, New Orleans.
The river was flowing slowly at this point
this morning, with seven feet three inches in the exposed channel, and the weather was clear and pleasant.
At Cincinnati at noon yesterday the river showed a small amount of ice water in the channel, but at the same time the river was fast.
The Arkansas river is, again very low, as evidenced by drought from Little Rock.
Messrs. Pitkin, Ward, & Co., received a shipment of Little Rock yesterday stating that the steam
